

East Meets West

PROGRAM

A Lantern Lit with Borrowed Light

Alexandra
Molar-Suhajda

- I. Stag Moon
- II. Flower Moon
- III. October Moon
- IV. Hare Moon

Shanghai

Laurel Zucker

Elegy

Cynthia Folio

Two Irish Waltzes

Arr. Darin Kelly

- I. Give Me Your Hand
- II. Little Faerie, Big Faerie

Piccolos in the Pub

Jonathan Cohen

- I. Glenwood Air
- II. Friday Afternoon

About the Ensemble

One of the largest active flute choirs in the United States, Penn Flutes is open to flutists of virtually all levels: undergraduate, graduate, faculty, staff and community members are welcome. Performances take place both on campus and around the region alongside our community partners. Repertoire spans a variety of genres from the Renaissance through Modern eras, and select members may be offered the opportunity to perform on piccolo as well as bass and alto flutes.

Penn Flutes

Library Choir

Steven Chen
Priya Deliwala
Shambhabi Gautam
Sowon Han
Alina Markutsya
Nick Sathi
Hayden Siesel
Megan Wu

About Music in the Stacks

A collaboration between the Albrecht Music Library and the Department of Music, "Music in the Stacks" brings Penn musicians into library spaces for drop-in, public performances throughout the semester.

